

Brad Baker: Australia

In his role as Sites & Infrastructure Coordinator and Forum Admin, Brad brings years of experience in the web hosting industry to the Joomla! team. He runs his own Web hosting & design business in addition to working for Rochen.

Shayne Bartlett: Australia

In his role as Project Manager and Foundation Working Group Coordinator, Shayne brings his background in administration and business to the Joomla! team. He works as the Business Development Director for an IT Consulting Agency.

Lévis Bisson: Canada

In his role as Shop Team Leader, Lévis brings his computer programming expertise to the Joomla! team. Along with his Michelle, he runs POPcliQ. See below for more information on POPcliQ.

Michelle Bisson: Canada

Michelle Bisson is the Fundraising Team Leader. Along with Lévis, she runs their company, Jazzisoft International Inc. or POPcliQ, which develops custom websites. They provide custom programming for the Quebec Government in addition to developing sites for many other organizations.

Joomla!™

CORE TEAM

Visit Us At: joomla.org

This document is made available under the Joomla! Electronic Documentation License.

Chris Davenport: U.K.

As Documentation Working Group Coordinator, Chris brings his wide array of skills to the Joomla! team. He has programmed everything from assembly languages upwards on everything from microprocessors to mainframes and has written his own Mambo documentation.

Wilco Jansen: Netherlands

As Development Working Group Coordinator, Wilco brings his background in programming to the Joomla! team. He started programming at the age of twelve, on a Tandy TRS 80, and has been programming since.

Johan Janssens: Belgium

A Project Manager and Lead Developer, Johan brings years of experience in programming to the Joomla! team. He also has worked with C/C++ and PHP, Johan has a Masters in Electronic Media.

Alex Kempkens: Germany

In his role as Events Team Leader, Alex brings a background in IT to the Joomla! team. Alex plays a central role in the organization of all JoomlaDay events. He is an IT Strategy Consultant for his own company: Think Network.

Mateusz Krzeszowiec: Poland

In his role as Core Developer, Mateusz brings his development talents to the Joomla! team. He is working on his Computer Engineering degree and is interested in web development and 2D/3D graphics.

Louis Landry: U.S.

In his role as Project Manager and Lead Developer, Louis brings his extensive background in programming to the Joomla! team. Hes programmed in many languages including x86, Java and PHP. Louis holds a Bachelors in Computer Science and is a founder of the web development company webimagery.

Andy Miller: U.S.

As the Design & Accessibility Working Group Coordinator, He has a degree in Computer Engineering and has worked in all areas of the technology sector from startups on up to Fortune 100 enterprises. He also has 5+ years experience with open source projects.

Sam Moffatt: Australia

As a Core Developer, Sam is the youngest member of Joomla! team. He participant ed in the Google Summer of Code. Sam also authors the JAuthTools project, which provides LDAP support for Joomla! 1.0.

Robin Muilwijk: Netherlands

In his role as Quality & Testing Working Group Coordinator, Robin brings his expertise in Change Management to the Joomla! team. His involvement helps ensure the best and most stable possible releases.

Ole Bang Ottosen: Denmark

As Translations Coordinator, Ole brings his knowledge of Danish, English, and German to the Joomla! team. He also is a longtime editor of the Joomla! Extensions Directory and runs a local Joomla! support site. Ole works professionally as a Joomla! Solutions Provider.

Peter Russell: U.K.

Peter Russell, Marketing & Media Team Leader, is the PR expert on the Joomla! team. His work consists of media strategy, PR, media liaison, and informatics. Peter holds qualifications in Journalism, Photography, and Print. He runs his own company: Yorkshire Media.

Rob Schley: U.S.

As a Core Developer, Rob brings experience in Open Source Content Management Systems and Web Application Security to the Joomla!

team. He was previously Coordinator of the Quality & Testing Working Group.